Annual Tree Lighting a Success!

Santa and Mrs. Claus arrived while everyone sung "Here Comes Santa Claus"!

The Annual Tree Lighting was another great success. Children and adults alike enjoyed the sights and sounds of the holiday.

Great entertainment was provided by the Dawson County High School Chamber Singers under the direction of Spencer Wright. Kenny Williamson and Vanessa Cox also performed seasonal favorites after the tree was lit.

Everyone enjoys a warm drink while they wait to see Santa & Mrs. Claus.

While the weather was chilly, everyone was able to warm up with a cup of cocoa, hot cider, or coffee as they waited to meet Santa Claus. The warm drinks were donated by downtown merchants so please be sure to tell them thank you! Champion's Café, Haley's, Appalachian Community Bank, and Dawsonville Dogs & Hogs

Children were delighted to tell Santa what was on their wish list; they asked for everything from video games to Barbie dolls!

Zak & Torrie Hester posing with Santa & Mrs. Claus.

While talking with Santa, John Seibel Photography provided a complimentary photo as a keepsake; pictures were printed and distributed that evening. The photos were so popular that the Seibel's have opened up a website connection for anyone interested in ordering more prints. Just go online to: www.johnseibelphotography.com/CitySanta

When the children were done visiting Santa, he gave them each a tasty candy cane donated by United Community Bank.

The City thanks all of the downtown businesses who help each year to make this such a wonderful event!
