Message from the Mayor

W. James Grogan
Mayor

Philippians 4: 6-7 Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God which surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and your hands.

Work is more often associated with feelings of stress and anxiety than it is with feelings of peace. Why is this? After all, most people associate home and church with peace. Why should work be any different? You and I, as Christians, have the peace that comes from having a relationship with Jesus Christ. As a Christian public servant, we should have that kind of peace all the time- even at work. Many times, I don't seem to carry that peace into work. I just let the cares and anxieties of work trouble my heart and push out the peace. I do that in spite of what is commanded of me. Throughout the day, I choose not to find time to pray and focus on Christ.

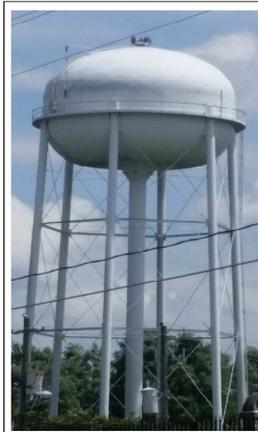

So today at work, I plan to pray for that peace. Before any meeting, before trying to help a citizen, before putting new ideas and plans before the council, before talking to a co-worker about job performance, before writing this newsletter, I plan to focus on the one that felt I was strong enough, trustworthy enough to appoint me to his service.

Have a great school year, kids. Look for great things coming to your city in the near future. Moonshine Festival is just around the corner, Veterans Day Parade, the Christmas Parade and Tree Lighting will follow that. All things considered it's been a great 9 months in our city.

Tim 1:12 I Thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has given me strength, that he considered me trustworthy, appointing me to his service.

Your Mayor,

W. James Grogan
