Section 2.21. Regular and special meetings

(b) Special meetings of the council may be held on call of the mayor or the mayor pro tempore and two councilmembers. Notice of such special meetings shall be served on all other members personally or by telephone personally or shall be left at their residence at least 12 hours in advance of the meeting. Such notice shall not be required if the mayor and all councilmembers are present when the special meeting is called. Such notice of any special meeting may be waived by a councilmember in writing before or after such meeting, and attendance at the meeting shall also constitute a waiver of notice on any business transacted in such councilmember's presence. Only the business stated in the call may be transacted at the special meeting except by unanimous consent of all members present. With such consent, any business which may be transacted in a regular meeting may be conducted at the special meeting.
